Comments	<input type="text" value="The proposed development would leave to a further erosion of the boundary definition between Banbury and he village of Hanwell. The local plan already recognises the importance of maintaining the physical character and community benefits of our historic ironstone villages, which offer a contrast to our towns. The plan also recognise the importance of maintaining landscapes and agricultural farmland. All of the above would be compromised by the proposed residential development, which is also excessive in scale."/>
