

The maximum eaves & ridge heights of the extensions will be no higher than the existing house.

With regard to the proposed entrance canopy to the west side of the house, this will have an area not exceeding 3 square metres and a height not exceeding 3 metres above ground level. The entrance canopy therefore satisfies the limits & conditions relating to entrance porches and permitted development.