Comments	<input type="text" value="Yet more urban sprawl and destruction of our rapidly diminishing country side. How can this be justified? What happened to the lungs of towns and villages? It's an absolute disgrace. Bicester is far too big anyway and badly polluted because it is growing relentlessly. Now we get plans for adding more development but the infrastructure or air quality issues due to traffic pollution are never addressed it is disgusting and dangerous for those who live near it. In the twenty or so years that I have lived here Bicester has never stopped growing. Where is the small market town I came to? Long gone, but far from being improved. I HATE IT, it's become a horrible place to live"/>
