Dear Kate, Thank you for your email and offer of help in sending my comments to the planning committee. Would it not be sufficient for you to simply forward my email to them?

Yours sincerely,
Frank

Dear Ms Lanham,

Unfortunately extreme old age and disability preclude my wife and myself from attending the village meeting on the above topic but as residents of this charming village for over fifty years we cannot let this matter pass without expressing our extreme concern and displeasure.

The effects of the proposal cover several points, among them:

- A. The consequent large increase in traffic on the already inadequate roads would lead to considerable air light and noise pollution.
- B. Nature and wildlife would be disturbed and disrupted leading to the loss of many types of wildflowers, fungi and animal life.
- C. Historic loss: traces of mediaeval ridge and furrow agricultural practice in the surrounding land will be eliminated.
- D. The inevitable gradual encroachment of a large alien community upon the village would destroy the heretofore calm and settled close community, and its unique rural character will be severely damaged.

We trust that it will be possible to ameliorate the disturbing nature of the proposed plans.

Yours sincerely,

Frank Leaver
