Comments	<input type="text" value="The area earmarked for the Hawkwell development is beautiful and home to an abundance of wildlife. Loss of this space will result in this wildlife being displaced, but as Bicester continues to expand in every direction there are fewer and fewer green spaces for any wildlife to exist. As these green spaces disappear it will become more likely that our wildlife will be unable to survive at all, such a tragedy. What about future generations? They should have the chance to see deer, rabbits and hares etc. bounding across the fields. The pandemic has changed our town centres, with many businesses unable to continue to trade. This has left some shops/buildings empty. Instead of building new homes why not convert these unused buildings into affordable homes for first time buyers and give them the chance to get on the property ladder. Reinvent our town centre into an area where our young generation can begin their independent lives, with easy access to amenities. Please rethink these plans and do not destroy this beautiful area. Think differently regarding new homes. New homes should not always mean new builds."/>
