Comments	Bicester is big enough! It is over-developed and the infrastructure is inferior to the needs of this town. This continued development is fuelled by one thing, and that is greed. This development is not to the benefit of ANY local people as the prices of these properties are simply unaffordable. The wildlife and green spaces surrounding Bicester have suffered irreparable damage. I have lived here a long time and I used to hear SkyLarks every day of the Summer and had Woodpeckers visiting my garden but no more. Their habitat is completely gone, all in the name of making money. There will come a time when children of Bicester will have to view wildlife in a museum because it will have been wiped out completely. STOP!
