It used to be a beautiful town but now is just a concrete jungle with houses or factories everywhere you look, not to mention it doesn't have the infrastructure to deal with the extra people or cars. You took away our main parking area to build sainsburys and replaced it with a tiny multi-storey as part of sainsburys which is always full, as are the car parks you have to pay in, you've opened all our railways so can't even drive around Bicester without getting stuck at railway lights or stuck in traffic. It's a nightmare. The new roundabout near graven hill was terrible. All these new " which="" with="" worse=""/>
