Comments	<input type="text" value="I object to the planned development. It swallows up green belt land. With the eco town to the North of Bicester, and Kingsmere to the South, there is an excessive number of new homes being built, without the infrastructure in place to handle the associated traffic. It's disgraceful that the realignment of Howes Lane has been halted. A sinful waste of money to have built the new bridge for it now to be a folly. I don't believe for one minute that all the facilities mentioned, shops, pub etc., will actually be built. The developer will wriggle out of their commitment and/ or avoid it, via some convenient loop hole. Bicester needs youth clubs and facilities, community and arts centres (Magistrates Court, anyone?), decent care homes, an A&E and more hospital beds. We need a fully staffed, always open police station. We need town centre medical practices, not super centres that are too far to walk to (Graven Hill). We need a decent ring road, access to Bicester Village from the A41. We need a revitalised town centre, not endless charity shops and barbers. What we do not need is 3,000 homes crammed on top of each other, sprawling out from Bicester, with fewer than 2 car parking spaces per house; and insufficient roads and infrastructure."/>
