Comments	<input type="text" value="I feel that there has been enough building work going on in Bicester. I've lived here 18yrs and the whole infrastructure of Bicester is awful as it is. Bicester used to be a lovely market town.. Now it just feels like a large town with no support network. It's a small town and it cannot cope with more people. The roads are busy enough as it is. The impact will be awful on losing more green spaces. I am angered it's even been considered. I am a nurse and my commute is bad enough as it is. I don't have the legal expertise to cite decent arguments. I just know, that as a decent person.. I say enough is enough."/>
