Comments	<input type="text" value="There is a real fear in the village that this additional planning application is the thin end of the wedge, and we could easily face the same fate as Hook Norton. I also understand that quoters for new housing in our category of village, have already been more or less filled? It feels very much as it is developement for developments sake! Is the country side not under enough threat already! We I moved here 20 years ago i was told that the infrasturcure in terms of services was already creaking. Nothing has changed."/>
