Comments	<input type="text" value="The North Arms is central both in location and socially to this village. The current financial climate is of course difficult but will not last forever. The pub needs to be retained as a pub which presumably the purchasers were aware of - they bought a pub not a house! This historically important public house must be retained and supported back to its former glory - many walkers frequent the abbey and this would be a welcome addition to this visiting tourists. They have a car park which would stem the flow of on street traffic once opened, something that would be lost or altered to being residential dwelling."/>
