Comment for planning application 22/00489/F

Lane Shenington Proposal Frection of 49 dwellings (17 of which (35%) will be affordable homes) with associated garages, parking and refuse storage, private gardens and communal open space/play space, hard and soft landscaping (Including SUDS feature and means of enclosure, reinstatement of hedging and ironstone walling along Rattlecombe Road) Case Officer Robin Forrester Organisation Andrew Smith Address New House, Rattlecombe Road, Shenington, Banbury, OX15 6LZ Type of Comment Objection Type of Comment The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to through myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important to tar ob this application on this point alone. The application is not for the pood health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed developer. Live opposet the village, envil be divelopment sure of the apandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really uerg you throw out this application on this point alone. The application by next cars. Shis development sure of the Alkerton or Tysee it is not suitable for extra cars. There have already been a few acidents at the apandemic and will be for a number of years to cars collided on the lill corning out of Alkerton entrup ted intot the village is narrow and leavalp tor work in the mo	Application Number	22/00489/F
garages, parking and refuse storage, private gardens and communal open space/play space, hard and soft landscaping (including SUDS feature and means of enclosure, reinstatement of hedging and ironstone walling along Rattlecombe Road) Case Officer Robin Forrester Organisation Andrew Smith Address New House, Rattlecombe Road, Shenington, Banbury, OX15 6LZ Type of Comment Objection Type neighbour Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil lift, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village and enjoy our tranquil lift, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village rad distribut the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the paceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development wull be for a number of years to come, I really urey out to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed developer. I live opposite the proposed development and Shenington is a Category C village so this development as a significant development to real tranto believe how this could change the village lift. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development as a significant development and real the constrained at the extra error of at the crossroad at the entrace to the village of model heat in the village access. My next doon oneighbour the Alkerton on Tysoe it is no	Location		Adjoining Stocking Lane And North Of Rattlecombe Road Stocking
Organisation Name Address New House, Rattlecombe Road, Shenington, Banbury, OX15 6LZ Type of Comment Objection Type Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really urey ou to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed developmer. I live opposite the proposed development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development surely falls outside the Category C. The extra traffic the proposed houses will generate will overcome an already sub standard main road into the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton or Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cars. There have aiready been a few accidents at the Alkerton hill. The road into the village ancress. My next door neighbour had the mis fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village at the top of Alkerton hill. The road intothe villages narrow and leaving forw wrk in the mornn	Proposal	garages, parking and refuse storage, private gardens and communal open space/play space, hard and soft landscaping (including SUDs feature and means of enclosure, reinstatement of
Name Andrew Smith Address New House,Rattlecombe Road,Shenington,Banbury,OX15 6LZ Type of Comment Objection Type neighbour Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, oilly the profits of the land owner and proposed developer. I live opposite the proposed development and I cannot believe how this could change the village file. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development surely falls outside the Category C. The extra traffic the proposed houses will generate will overcome an already sub standard main road into the village is narrow and leaving for work in the moring out of Alkerton into Shenington. This shut the village access. My next door neighbour had the mis fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village the top of Alkerton hill. Meento holin. When the sono wcomes, village access is alson at village to support another off, this is not a village to support another by olige access is alson a village to supher ton with diff	Case Officer	Robin Forrester
Address New House, Rattlecombe Road, Shenington, Banbury, OX15 6LZ Type of Comment Objection Type neighbour Objection Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come. I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the goad health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed development. Ilive opposite the proposed development as a significant development and is canto believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development as a significant development and road into the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton on Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cras. There have already been a few accidents at the Alkerton into Shenington. This shut the village access. My next door neighbour had the mis fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village the cop of Alkerton hill. The road into the willage is narrow and leaving for work in the morning I always meet a school bus and often have to stop to let it pass. The dark winter evenings are the most dangerous as you enter the village you have to be very car	Organisation
Type of Comment Objection Type neighbour Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come. I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the god health of the village, only the profts of the land owner and proposed developm. I live oposite the proposed development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development as a significant development and Shenington is a Category C village so this development as a significant development on the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton or Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cars. There have already been a few accidents at the Alkerton intrace, one last year in low sun when two cars collided on the hill coming out of Alkerton hill. The road into the village you have to be very careful not to swing out to far when rounding the corner as it is oeasy to meet another velicle cutting the corner on the way up the Alkerton hill. When the snow cornes, village access is cut off, this is not a village to support another 90 cars, most of which will be two wheel drive cars in the village tos apover the there are off at the crossroads at the enta	Name	Andrew Smith
Type of Comment Objection Type neighbour Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come. I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed development as a significant development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development as a significant development and roma traffic the proposed houses will generate will overoome an already sub standard main road into the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton on Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cars. There have already been a few acclusts at the Alkerton entrance, one last year in low sun when two cars collided on the hill coming out of Alkerton hill. The road into the village is narrow and leaving for work in the morning I always meet a school bus and often have to stop to let it pass. The dark winter evenings are the most dangerous as you enter the village you have to be very careful not to swing out to far when rounding the corner as it is so easy to meet another vehicle cutiff, this is not a village to support another 90 cars, most of which wi	Address	New House, Rattlecombe Road, Shenington, Banbury, OX15 6LZ
Type neighbour Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed development as a significant development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development as a significant development and Shenington is a Category C village so this development as a significant development and Shenington. This shut the village creas. My next door neighbour had the mis fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village at the top of Alkerton nill. The road into the village in narrow and leaving for work in the morning I always meet a school bus and often have to stop to let it pass. The dark winter evenings are the most dangerous as you enter the village you have to be very carful not to swing out too far when rounding the corner as it is so easy to meet another vehicle cutting the corner on the way up the Alkerton hill. When the snow comes, village access is cut off, this is not avillage to support another 90 cars, most of which will be twow heel drive cars in the willage what this would be like. The ro	Type of Comment	•
Comments The above planning application has no place in such a tranquil and historical village of Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed development live opposite the proposed development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. Wy view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development surely falls outside the Category C. The extra traffic the proposed houses will generate will overcome an already sub standard main road into the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton or Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cars. There have already been a few accidents at the Alkerton nito. Shenington, This shut the village access. My next wion the most fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village at the top of Alkerton hill. The road into the village is narrow and leaving for work in the morning I always meet a school bus and often have to stop to let it pass. The dark winter evenings are the most dangerous as you enter the village you have to be very careful not to swing out too far when rounding the corner as it is so easy to meet another vehicle cutting the corner on the way up the Alkerton hill. When the snow onces, village access is cut off, this is not a village to support a new development of this num		-
Shenington with Alkerton. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very fortunate to live in the village and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will destroy the harmony of the village as well as create some serious issues with safety and services. Throughout the pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the village really helped me with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve this development would be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the pandemic and will be for a number of years to come, I really urge you to throw out this application on this point alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only the profits of the land owner and proposed developer. I live opposite the proposed development and I cannot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be interrupted from the upstairs of my house and I class this development sarely falls outside the Category C. The extra traffic the proposed houses will generate will overcome an already sub standard main road into the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton or Tysoe it is not suitable for extra cars. There have already been a few accidents at the Alkerton nito. Shenington. This shut the village access. My next door neighbour had the mis fortune to write her car off at the crossroads at the entrance to the village at the top of Alkerton hill. The road into the village is narrow and leaving for work in the morning I always meet a school bus and often have to stop to let it pass. The dark winter evenings are the most dangerous as you care sits is so easy to meet another vehicle cutting the corner on the way up the Alkerton hill. When the snow comes, village access is cut off, this is not a village to support another 90 cars, most of which will be two wheel drive so will not be able to get in or get out. I shudder to think if we had 90 four wheel drive so that the ewe houses would be like. The road access is al
		Shenington with Alkerton fortunate to live in the vi destroy the harmony of t services. Throughout the village really helped me we this development would be pandemic and will be for application on this point at the profits of the land ow development and I cannot interrupted from the upset development and Shening the Category C. The extra sub standard main road in Tysoe it is not suitable for Alkerton entrance, one lat Alkerton into Shenington fortune to write her car of Alkerton hill. The road informet meet a school bus and of most dangerous as you effect and the would be like. The road at houses would place on the overloaded and cannot su standard and working fro that the only way that I of struggle with people tryin have an air source heat p this will only exacerbate for be happy to discuss this in	I. I have lived in Shenington for the last twelve years and feel very llage and enjoy our tranquil life, the proposed development will he village as well as create some serious issues with safety and pandemic I had to furlough myself and the peaceful nature of the with my mental health, this is a very important point and to approve be a reckless disregard for mental health. We are living through the a number of years to come, I really urge you to throw out this alone. The application is not for the good health of the village, only mer and proposed developer. I live opposite the proposed ot believe how this could change the village life. My view will be tairs of my house and I class this development as a significant gton is a Category C village so this development surely falls outside a traffic the proposed houses will generate will overcome an already nto the village. Whether you approach the village from Alkerton or r extra cars. There have already been a few accidents at the ist year in low sun when two cars collided on the hill coming out of . This shut the village access. My next door neighbour had the mis fif at the crossroads at the entrance to the village at the top of to the village you have to be very careful not to swing out too far r as it is so easy to meet another vehicle cutting the corner on the When the snow comes, village access is cut off, this is not a village rs, most of which will be two wheel drive so will not be able to get o think if we had 90 four wheel drive cars in the village what this is creess is also not suitable for the extra pressure that the new te emergency services. The local sewage system is already upport a new development of this number. The internet is very sub m home can be problematic and the mobile phone signal is so poor can get a signal is to use my phone over the internet and I really the tot do not like power surges and with the new houses this problem. Thank you for taking the time to read this and I would
	Pereived Data
	Attachments	28/03/2022 21:08:55	