Comments	I object to the application on the following grounds: 1, In Section 5 of the application, the applicant states that no development has started. This contradicts what I see each time I drive or walk past the site. Lorry loads of hard core have been delivered and laid which, to my mind, would far exceed the requirement for 1 mobile and 1 static caravan allowed for in the Planning Inspector's Schedule of Conditions attached to his Appeal Decision. So far as I am aware Cherwell District Council did not authorise this activity. 2. In Section 12 of the application relating to site visit, the applicant states that the site cannot be seen from a public road, etc. This is not correct 3. As a general observation, it would seem that the applicant appears to be working under the assumption that if he presents a fait accompli, the Council will grant retrospective authority. I hope I am wrong.
