Comments	<input type="text" value="We would like to object to this re-application. Despite 3 previous planning refusals very little in this application appears to have changed - therefore all previous comments remain valid. The retention of this site as a green amenity was a planning condition imposed on the Farriers development in order to preserve the character and appearance of that stretch of Rectory Lane. This attempt to build a large property on a totally inappropriate site is clearly wrong and should be resisted. Damian & Janette Hannon"/>
