Comments	I strongly object to this application. Building on farmland, should be a last resort after all other options are exhausted. Wildlife is at risk with removal of hedgerows and building where they roam. Bicester has been a big player in building houses and warehouses and has grown immensely over the years. When is this expected to stop? The planning must be better. Mixing houses near warehouses you are adding to noise and light as well as co2 pollution. Current warehouses are not fully occupied and still looking for staff suggesting that Bicester either has little need for the jobs or there are too many of a certain kind of job available. Will they also bus in the workers from surrounding towns? Finally, I would suggest that creating warehouses that require trucks to and from them would be intelligently placed in areas that do not already suffer from road congestion on a regular basis. I fear a serious accident would be just a matter of time on the B4100 as people struggle to pull out of the junctions with speeding cars and no gap I'm the traffic to pull out.
