Comments	This is a green field site. There are already many warehouses in Bicester which aren't full so there is no excuse for building more out in the countryside. If the land is not high enough quality for crops - and the country needs to be able to feed itself - then the government would be delighted if trees were planted. So would we be. In view of climate change ( Climate Change Act 2008) the government expects carbon reduction to zero by 2050 . . . New non-domestic buildings to be zero carbon from 2019. Too late. The amount of concrete alone in this proposed plan would render that impossible. The air, light and noise pollution, not to mention the huge increase in traffic, would not only be offensive to local people and their health, but to wildlife of every kind. We have already lost many species of farmland birds This plan would ensure we lost a great many more. This is not compatible with 'landscape recovery'.
