Comments	<input type="text" value="Having studied zoology in the neighbouring city of Oxford 50 years ago, and visiting Otmoor to enhance my studies I have always known the value of Otmoor to our wild life especially migrating birds is inestimable. Working within the world of conservation and the media, I know it would be irresponsible and a tragedy to use land adjacent to this valuable site as a wind farm, with all the threats that it would bring. I oppose the plan. Caroline Baker"/>
