Comments	<input type="text" value="While we all agree that solar and wind are the way forward, as are all re-newables the very idea of this massive solar farm being built near such a fragile environment as otmoor I find astounding. No one knows the impact this would have on the unique fauna that visits this special site . once lost it may never recover in my mind it is not worth the risk, an alternate site should be found, leave otmoor alone.&lt;br/&gt;Thank you"/>
