Comments	<input type="text" value="I am warily supportive of this scheme and in general schemes that harness solar energy to provide electricity to our nation despite being sometimes difficult to accept when they are upon our doorstep. I would be reassured to know that once this solar farm had reached the end of its life, further more obtrusive development of the land upon which it sits, would not become more likely as a result of a decision that we are making now."/>
