Comments	<input type="text" value="We were unfortunately away so have only recently become aware of the deadline to commenting on this unwelcome application. While we are not immediate neighbours, we live in Oxford and together with many others enjoy the beautiful resource that is Otmoor, home to so much wildlife. The efforts of RSPB and others to turn it back into a wetland have been significantly successful as is witnessed by the birdlife and other wildlife. While it is laudable to increase the move towards sustainable energy this is so clearly a totally inappropriate and reckless, risking damaging so much work that has gone into this area, and we urge the council to turn down the application and ensure the safeguarding of Otmoor for birds and wildlife as well as humans."/>
