Comments	<input type="text" value="I am concerned that this Estate will not feel part of Woodstock's community. It will exist in a kind of 'No man's land'. I am concerned that the Blenheim Estates are too greedy and powerful and profit seeking and not building truly affordable homes or understanding that communities need carefully thought out infrastructure: schools, doctors surgeries, food shops, community facilities, transport links to thrive and coexist alongside existing communities. It's the rate of thoughtless greed driven expansion that concerns me."/>
