Comments	I am in West Oxfordshire but (as you can see) live close to this proposed development. The A4095 is a few yards from my front door. I strongly object to any more traffic going through Bladon on a road which is not built to any more, particularly lorries. The project has been discussed at Bladon PC and my own concern is echoed by the great majority of Bladon inhabitants. My understanding is that our views are not been considered because we are just the wrong side of a district boundary. I hope we can be
