Comments	When the original plans were approved for the bloor home development we were told at all of the consultations that Edinburgh Way was not going to be the main access to the site . However now we have most of the houses built this does not seem to be the case . It is being used more and more being the quickest way to the local shops and school . More houses is just going to make this worse and make it not a pleasant place to live for existing residents , some like myself having lived here for over 50 years . You either need to look at an additional vehicle access or not build the houses .
