Comments	<input type="text" value="The application is one in a long line of opportunist proposals, popular with developers due to the local planning authorities seeming inability or desire to maintain any sense of community or Ambrosden history. The proposal would place further strain on already inadequate local infrastructure to include health, education, road and recreation. Having lived in the centre of Ambrosden for over 30 years, I have become increasingly disgusted with the disproportionate amount of over development in the area and the total lack of protection that should be afforded by those elected to protect us."/>
