Comments	<input type="text" value="Ostensibly my objection is that The council now has over 5 years future of housing stock and so this additional housing is not needed in what is already an over developed area. We have as a village taken our share of the approved local plan so need no more, notwithstanding we have had to contend with great wolf resorts this application will further add to traffic and waste water drainage issues etc"/> <input type="text" value="This plan should be refused purely on the fact that we don't need any more housing stock"/>
