Comments	<input type="text" value="They will just keep trying, there doesn't seem to be any change to the plans, they look the same as last time. A crafty move as all the objections get wiped out and we have to start again. To me this is the thin end of the wedge, once this countryside is covered in concrete, plans will be submitted for the lovely Hamlet of Nethercote. There are already empty industrial units, the jobs provided by this type of warehousing is very low. It's very busy on the M40 roundabout now without more units causing more traffic. This land should have a preservation order put on it as the ridge and furrow fields date back hundreds of years."/>
