Comments	<input type="text" value="Banbury is getting harder to move through. Additional development is destroying the area and turning Banbury into an unpleasant, gridlocked eyesore. The amount of jobs generated does not off set the negative impact. The only growth is land owner greed and developer profits. Banbury is a small market town with infrastructure set accordingly. The M40 is not a network improvement that supports Central Banbury. This application was rejected the first time round for good reason. I am assuming Common sense will prevail unless some financial redirection has accrued to the planning head..."/>
