Comments	<input type="text" value="I think this latest application is quite unnecessary and was led to believe when M40 opened there would be no developments Brackley side of M40. This seems not to be as the two large warehouses already built are in place. The ancient ridge and furrow field is a joy to see and the countryside is being swallowed up by unnecessary new developments. I live in Middleton Cheney and have done so for 60yrs and over that time have had to put up with endless journeys at times that have taken more than 1 hour to access Banbury town and everything extra built on the Daventry road will add to the problem."/>
