Comments	<input type="text" value="I'm getting fed up with feeling the need to respond to all these horrendous eyesores that are blighting this area.

What it make it worse is that no-one in the council actually reads them because it's so dictatorial in the way it behaves. Evidence is everywhere of a council utterly screwing up every planning decision it touches. Eyesores everywhere.

And now they want to build another bloody warehouse on land that's occupied by wildlife. When will this rape of the countryside stop? This is 'Palm Oil' politics of razing green spaces in favour of making money. Why? Why are you doing this?

Forget commercialisation and start doing something moral and ethical and stop showing such wide-scale apathy when it comes to addressing residents' concerns.

To illustrate this I expect a personal email from someone in the council and not just the obligatory response. If I don't get one I will know that you have not read this response and will act in all my journalistic capacity to highlight the fact.

I'm watching a red tailed kite fly over my house as I write this and it's a sight to behold. Need I say any more?"/>
