Comments	<input type="text" value="Needs to be stopped, enough is enough with house builders getting away with whatever they want, the village of Hanwell was around long before any of these company's or new build homes and bridging the gap between Hanwell chase and Hanwell village is quite frankly criminal, it destroys the rural appeal of this area and the natural beauty and while I understand there is a need for further new homes there are plenty of other areas that could be considered. My heart goes out to the residents of Hanwell village for the stress this must be causing them and it really needs the people considered first rather than sucking the life out of our beautiful green spaces"/>
