Comments	The development of further housing on farmland around Hanwell and Hanwell fields should be strongly opposed. This farmland is an essential part of our green infrastructure, and its conversion into housing would result in the loss of valuable green spaces that provide numerous benefits to both people and the environment. This part of Banbury has already absorbed much urban sprawl from the town and threatens the independence of the historic Hanwell village and parish. Additionally, we have already seen the loss and displacement of wildlife in Hanwell, and the destruction of habitats caused by housing, which has led to irreversible damage to local ecosystems. The preservation of this space is essential for maintaining a healthy environment, promoting public health and well-being, and supporting biodiversity. It is critical that we prioritise the protection of our green infrastructure for future generations.
