Comments	<input type="text" value="I strongly object to any more housing estates bordering and eventually linking villages to towns. I saw what happened to Bicester and everything got swallowed up by estates full of plasterboard palaces. We buy a house in a village, because we wish to live in a small community, not in a vast array of new houses. If this settlement goes ahead, it will just keep moving north and all of the villages will be swallowed up into one big Banbury, which to be honest has gone to the dogs. There are plenty of brownfield sites to build estates on, without using agricultural land, which is disappearing fast and should NEVER be allowed to be built on. We will be a country full of houses and people starving as we cannot feed ourselves."/>
