Comments	<input type="text" value="The Warwick Road already struggles with high levels of traffic. More houses will obviously produce more vehicles on a road that is already badly maintained especially at the bottom. More traffic will also produce more environmental damage causing increasing air pollution for the existing residents on the Warwick Road and the surrounding area which includes a Secondary School. There is already massive pressure on GP surgeries, dental surgeries, pharmacies, and all educational establishments in Banbury, therefore will there be a corresponding increase in building and funding of these services to meet the needs of more new housing? I would suspect the answer is no!"/>
