Comments	Once again there is a U-turn on a previously defined boundary in a sprawling development in Banbury. The site plan conveniently omits to show the proximity to Hanwell Village and before long the final field - it should remain as two - will be developed and Hanwell village will cease to exist. Of course we need more housing and the whole Hanwell estate is not wrong but the development has to stop somewhere and this development is, in my opinion, one field too far! Stick to your own plan and maintain this beautiful and historic village.
