Comments	<input type="text" value="My 88 year old mother lives in hanwell in gullicott lane. She is most distressed about the thought of there being houses built in the field near to her and that instead of the quiet calm of the village, she will be forced to practically live on an estate in Banbury. Aside from the fact there is just not the infrastructure to cope with more houses and people, what about the wildlife, the tranquility, the community, the crop growing A grade fields. It's not all about money Cherwell district council, please stop this madness. Upgrade and infill in Banbury instead of encroaching on the villages please"/>
