Comments	<input type="text" value="*The extent of the development in that area is already impacting on the traditional villages close by. Some are in danger of being encompassed, losing their character and history.
* The road systems for access to M25 are being overwhelmed with increased traffic. The area itself does not offer work opportunities - a majority of people commute by car and access remains undeveloped.
* The medical infrastructure is already battling to offer a good service and is being strained even more with each development that is built.
