Comments	There are so very many reasons to object to this hideously inappropriate proposal. The obvious would include: the inarguable coalescence of Banbury and Hanwell which would result; the huge negative impact upon nature, the local environment and biodiversity of building upon open countryside; the further overwhelming of local infrastructure, be it road, health, community or otherwise, which are already bursting at the metaphorical seams; the direct impact on the residents of Hanwell, who have mobilised admirably en masse to demonstrate their collective and complete objection; the fact that there is no (longer) any policy, plan or target, local or national which supports the granting of approval for the scheme. Please, the rampant 'development' of North Banbury and surrounding villages has to stop somewhere.
