Comments	<input type="text" value="Please stop building Banbury houses out to engulf beautiful villages and farmland. Hanwell is not only a lovely village with village life and values, but it is also a community for its people. The latest proposal will engulf Hanwell, take away its rural status, challenge its community and destroy good farmland, which the UK should be more reliant on than ever. Additionally, from a personal point of view, the new houses will be built up to the end of our garden, which will massively affect the tranquil nature of our village home. Please consider building elsewhere which does not affect villages."/>
