Comments	<input type="text" value="The developers Blue Cedar Homes submitted a planning application previously for 6 bungalows (on the same plot of land as this one) and this was refused by CDC and the Appeal Officer. Submitting a new application for 5 double storey houses is surely going to impact the area just as much or even worse as they are taller buildings. Do these developers think that just keeping on submitting a variation on their applications that eventually they will get one accepted?"/>
