Dear Suzanne

Thank you for consulting the conservation team on the above discharge of condition application.

The masterplan appears to follow the layout as set out within the outline application, and retains a buffer around the Listed Building/farm buildings at Himley Farm. The green space and the school use proposed will help to reduce the impact on the Listed Building through development within its setting. This is consistent with conservation advice given on application 14/02121/OUT. Therefore in terms of heritage there are no objections to the discharge of condition 8 of 14/02121/OUT.

With regards to the design code element, detailed urban design advice is considered to be outside the remit of the Conservation Team and we would therefore advise that if required specialist Urban Design advice is sought.

I hope this is of assistance to you.

Kind Regards

Emma Harrison
