Comments	<input type="text" value="Genuinely beginning to feel overwhelmed by the scale of the proposed development around Kidlington, Yarnton and Begbroke. The creation of 5000 new jobs, with more on other sites, the potential to close the Sandy Lane crossing, the accommodation clearly designed for students in an already crowded part of North Oxfordshire. It's like the lungs of the place, the bits that are pretty and make this area a place worth living, are being smothered. Loss of green space will be devastating but add that to the added traffic, the fact you have to build more houses to cater for all the extra people this development will suck in. Is there any side of Kidlington that isn't under threat?

In short I strongly object to both the scale and nature of this proposed development."/>
