Comments	<input type="text" value="Why Build more warehousing when the building put up 2 years ago are STILL empty. I would consider it if it was for more diverse employment reasons. Not just to build quick and cheap while they can. Too many warehouses already in the area which are a eyesore and bring no benefit to the local area. Hellofresh have to bring in coachloads from outside the area to work in there warehouse. I can see the a422 going up the hill from my house and do not want the view/area spoilt by large roofs that can be seen miles away."/>
