Comments	<input type="text" value="Yet again, this application is going through with minor tweaks making previous objections redundant. We do not need anymore warehouses with low paid jobs. There are already 3 warehouses on the other side of the Daventry road, next to the Motorway which are still empty after a couple of years. If they can't fill them what chance of this lot. The Daventry road is already busy and if this goes ahead and is actually filled then there will be traffic chaos so close to the junction 11 roundabout. The land slopes up to the escarpment and is one of the few picturesque areas in this vicinity. With countless warehouses to look at when driving on the M40, Banbury will be renamed Warehouse city and anyone thinking of visiting this pretty market town will drive on past."/>
