Comments	<input type="text" value="This proposed development would have a major negative impact on the local environment',wildlife
And traffic congestion which in turn will create yet further pollution to both the site and the surrounding areas.
These green areas should remain as they are and if anything should be made accessible to the general public use as places to visit and experience close contact with nature, these areas offer at first hand.
Please say no to more unsightly warehouse for the good of all in Banbury and the surrounding villages."/>
