Comments	<input type="text" value="I whole heartedly object to any building on this land. We are lucky enough in this area to have many endangered species flourishing, including otters, newts, partridge, pole cats, meadow lizards, water voles, raptors and owls to name a few. Banbury and the area surrounding this proposed development has already seen so much development, it has scared the landscape permanently. The proposed plans also include flattening ridge and furrow features that have survived since the Middle Ages, and is some of the last examples of this left in England.

Please please refuse this development, and maintain what little unspoilt and unsullied spaces in the Banbury shire area, put Banbury at increased risk of flooding, and a massive impact on our environment."/>
