Comments	<input type="text" value="I don't live anywhere nearby but as a fan of an another club, Brighton & Hove Albion, I write to support. Brighton were nearly out of business in the 90s when commercial interests got control of our ground to exploit the asset value, making our team homeless. Football teams have such a wide community impact that it's vital they are protected and nurtured where possible. Brighton have risen phoenix-like from the ashes of near extinction to play in Europe and the Premier League in a Community Stadium. It's great to see Oxford back in the league and I hope they can emulate Brighton's resurrection with a stadium like this."/>
