Comments	<input type="text" value="I don't think you will actually read this but I hope this planning application is approved, all over Oxford communities are being torn apart and football is one of the last communities left, when I grew up in Marston you would know everyone and the community was buzzing, but as you got older everyone was forced to move further afield because of the prices of living where you grew up, and there is no community, the only place you get that now is at the football, a place where you can meet up with old faces and be proud of where you are from, if you reject this application it is the final nail in the coffin of a community on Oxford and the divide grows even bigger between have and has nots I'm oxford."/>
