Comments	<input type="text" value="Building a stadium at The Triangle represents an amazing opportunity for Oxfordshire to have a world class sporting facility which will also significantly reduce carbon emissions and road traffic. As a resident of North Oxfordshire I've only ever driven to the Kassam Stadium, as travelling via public transport is highly impractical to this site. Despite Banbury not being on the same Chiltern railways branch line as Oxford Parkway I would still find travelling by train preferable to driving, giving me the choice of travelling to Bicester North, walking to Bicester Village and then catching a train to Oxford Parkway, or going to Oxford Station and changing there. Both of these options would be of benefit to the local economy, as it would provide an incentive to sample food and drink from businesses on-route rather than simply driving to and from a single location. The fact that the new stadium will be 100% electricity powered also represents a huge environmental opportunity, providing a blueprint for sports teams across the world to try and reduce their carbon emissions.

Oxford United are the only professional sports team in Oxfordshire, and with the lease at the Kassam Stadium running out in 2026 it is imperative for the club's survival that planning permission is granted for the new stadium."/>
