Comments	<input type="text" value="Wow what an opportunity for so many people in Oxfordshire . I have lived in Oxford and Abingdon all my life and have never been so excited about a building project . The University do seem to come up with the goods for their clients on so many occasions .and now here is something tangible for the many .not the few . The stadium is seen as representing the fast growing population of our fantastic county . I and my family of siblings number eleven ,seven boys and two girls all of which would be able to tell you and people far and wide of our support for Oxford United and do whenever they are out and about the country. We are ashamed of our present excuse for a stadium and that's not an exaggeration .We can do better than this Oxfordshire and would you believe it won't cost thd county anything ,it's free !! I am proud to say that If I could have been in any way responsible for the realisation of this opportunity for my children and many grandchildren then I can hold my head up so so readily,and give them this legacy ."/>
