Oxford United is our county's only football club. It is a source of enormous pride for thousands of people right across the county. By refusing to build the stadium, you would be condemning Oxford United to an uncertain future, which would likely result in the demise of the football club. This would have a greater impact than you would imagine. Oxford United contributes so much to our county. There are the obvious financial benefits of the football club - people employed directly by the club as well as those who benefit from the increased footfall on matchdays (i.e. hospitality companies). The club also makes an enormous contribution to the community - for example, recently several players founded the " which="" whilst="" will="" would="" you="" youngsters.=""/>
